Research Seminar Series, Lent 2008

Dr Guillaume Lachenal
(Le Centre national de la recherche scientifique, Paris)
“Viruses as Resources. Transnational research on AIDS and the neo-liberal moment in Cameroon”

Dr Hayley MacGregor
(International Development Studies)
“NGOs, Activism and Human rights: an analysis of HIV, mental illness and stigma in South Africa”

Professor Didier Fassin
(Ecoles Normales, Paris)
“Paranoid Style and Memoro-Politics. Making sense of the South African controversy on AIDS”

Professor Susan Whyte and Dr Lotte Meinert
(University of Copenhagen and University of Aarhus)
“Living with AK1: The first generation in Uganda”

Dr Kris Petersen
(University of California)
“Crafting Neoliberal Logics: the political economy of AIDS policies in Nigeria”

Professor Catherine Campbell
(LSE)
“Facilitating HIV/AIDS 'Empowerment' Programmes within Traditional Authority Structures: Experiences from southern Africa”

Professor Suzette Heald
(Brunel University)

all seminars are at 5.00pm on a Monday

The Mond Building Seminar Room,
Free School Lane, Cambridge, CB2 3RF