

Africa and the World Cup

Library resources in Cambridge

Africa news blogs featuring articles on the World Cup

<http://panafricannews.blogspot.com/>

<http://blogs.reuters.com/africanews/>

<http://africanewsblog.com/>

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/blogs/thereporters/andrewharding>

Playing for Peace: Special Issue ACCORD magazine, June 2010

Available at African Studies

South African Geographical Journal: World Cup Issue (forthcoming)

Available at the UL

Panorama: More Than Just a Game (DVD)

Available at African Studies

Africa, Football and Fifa: Politics, Colonialism and Resistance Paul Darby

Available at the UL

“Soccer in South Africa (A brief outline)” F.J. Nöthling

Published in African Historical Review. Available at the UL

Politique Africaine: Les Terrains Politiques du Football Special Issue

Available at African Studies

Laduma!: Soccer, Politics and Society in South Africa Peter Alegi

Available at the UL

“A Nation To Be Reckoned With’: The Politics of World Cup Stadium Construction in Cape Town and Durban, South Africa” Peter Alegi

Published in African Studies. Available at the UL

This selection isn’t exhaustive - browse the library catalogues for more relevant titles!