

Emmanuel College
Fellowship in Social Anthropology and African Studies

Further Particulars

The Governing Body of Emmanuel College invites applications for a Teaching / Research Fellowship in Social Anthropology and African Studies, tenable for 3 years from 1st October 2014. This is a Research Fellowship under College Statutes with the condition that the Fellow will also teach for the College and for the Cambridge University Centre of African Studies. The Fellowship is part funded through the generosity of the Smuts Trust, that funding being strictly limited to a period of three years.

Candidates may be working in any area of Social Anthropology within the scope of the teaching and research undertaken by the Cambridge University Centre of African Studies. Applicants will normally be expected to have completed a PhD and to have at most 10 years of post-graduate research and teaching since completing their first degree.

In addition to pursuing his or her personal research, the Fellow will be required to:

1] Teach supervisions for up to four hours per week for Emmanuel College during Full Term within the Human, Social and Political Sciences Tripos and the Psychology and Behavioural Sciences Tripos; participate in the annual selection of undergraduates at Emmanuel to read for the Human, Social and Political Sciences Tripos; and, if required, to act as a Director of Studies within the Human, Social and Political Sciences Tripos.

2] Contribute to the teaching and administration of the Centre of African Studies, specifically:

- Seminar teaching for core and optional elements in the MPhil in African Studies, not to exceed 3 hours per week during full term;
- Membership of the Committee of Management of the Centre of African Studies;
- Membership of the Graduate Education Committee of the MPhil in African Studies;
- Examination of essays and theses as required by the course convenor for the MPhil in African Studies;
- Convening the series of weekly seminars at the Centre of African Studies for one term during the tenure of the Fellow.

The stipend for a post-doctoral Teaching / Research Fellow will be £24,825 (this is reduced to £22,683 in the case of a resident Fellow). An additional payment will be made for the College supervisions undertaken by the Fellow.

The Fellow will be provided with an office in Emmanuel (or a single resident Fellow's set in the case of a resident Fellow), appropriate computing equipment, an annual research allowance of up to £1,500, and an allowance of £260 per year for the purchase of academic books. Lunch and dinner in Hall are provided free of charge.
