

REGIMES OF CARE, RELATION OF CARE: EXPLORING THE CHANGING
ORDER OF PUBLIC HEALTH IN AFRICA
Newnham College, University of Cambridge
Saturday 7th June 2008

08.45 – 09.15 Registration

09.15 – 09.30. Ruth Prince: Welcome and opening remarks

Discussant: Harri Englund, University of Cambridge

09.30 – 10.10 Lotte Meinert, University of Aarhus
'Homework' in AIDS care: an extended case from Uganda.

10.10 – 10.50 Julie Livingstone, Rutgers University
The social phenomenology of the next epidemic: pain in Botswana's cancer ward

10.50 – 11.20 COFFEE

Discussant: Steve Feierman, University of Pennsylvania

11.20 – 12.00 Susan Whyte, University of Copenhagen
Living with ART: the first generation in Uganda

12.00 – 12.40 Ruth Prince, University of Cambridge
HIV counselors in Kenya: fragmentation of professional knowledge and continuity in everyday life.

12.40 – 13.50 LUNCH

Discussant: Steve Feierman, University of Pennsylvania

13.50 – 14.30 Stacey Langwick, Cornell University
The new publics of traditional medicine (Tanzania)

14.30 – 15.10 Wenzel Geissler, LSHTM
Second enclosure: the changing spaces of medical research in 21st century Kenya

15.10 – 15.40 COFFEE

Discussant: Susan Whyte, University of Copenhagen

15.40 – 16.20 HansJoerg Dilger, Free University Berlin
Religion, the virtue-ethics of development and the transnationalization of health politics in Tanzania

16.20 – 17.00 Rebecca Marsland, University of Edinburgh
The side effects of public health: malaria, drug resistance and Nyakyusa 'Tradition'

17.00 – 17.30 General discussion