

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Faculty of History

African Research Seminar – Easter 2013

The ARF is an interdisciplinary forum for the discussion of work in progress. Graduate students of all disciplines are welcome as well as academics.

Meetings will usually take place in the Green Room at Gonville and Caius College, on alternate Wednesdays at 1pm.

22nd May Michelle Sikes and Anne Heffernan, both Oxford

'Gold and glory for Kenya's track tycoons: why does gender inequality persist?' (M Sikes) 'Congress and comrades: the rise of regional politics and local youth groups in the Northern Transvaal, 1979-86' (A Heffernan)

29th May Eva Namusoke and Eliud Biegon, both Cambridge

'A complex of specialness': the church in Buganda, 1953-71' (E Namusoke)
'Nyang'ori laibons and British colonial law in Western Kenya' (E Biegon)

Tuesday 11th June Katherine Luongo, Northeastern University, Boston, and CRASSH, Cambridge

"Legal approaches to witchcraft in postcolonial Tanzania"

Bateman Room, Gonville and Caius College

West Road
Cambridge CB3 9EF

Tel: +44 (0) 1223 335340
Fax: +44 (0) 1223 335968
Email: sw288@cam.ac.uk
www.hist.cam.ac.uk