

Seminar Series Lent 2014

Media and Intellectual Productions in Africa's Pasts and Presents

Monday 27 January, 5pm Room S1 ARB

Professor Jean-Louis Triaud, professeur émérite, Université de Provence, Aix-Marseille I
The Timbuktu Manuscripts: Economic, Political and Scientific Stakes. Some Reflections about a Media Buzz

Monday 3 February , 5pm Room S1 ARB

Dr Nicole Stremlau, University of Oxford

Somalia: Media Law in the Absence of a State

Monday 10 February, 5pm Room S1 ARB

Professor Bodil Folke Frederiksen, Department of Society and Globalization, Roskilde University

Non-European Newspaper Culture in Kenya: Mumenyereri, the Daily Chronicle and the Colonial Times, 1945-51

Monday 17 February, 5pm Room S1 ARB

Dr Abdoulaye Sounaye, ZMO Berlin

Producing Islamic Reform: Media Practices and the Construction of Religious Authority in Niger

Monday 24 February, 5pm Room S1 ARB

Professor Armando Cutolo, University of Sienna

How to do Resistance with Words: Nationalism, Afrocentrism and Oratory in Abidjan's Street Parliaments

Monday 3 March, 5pm Room S1 ARB

Dr Estelle Sohier, Université de Genève

Hybrid Images of Political Power: The Role of Iconographic Narratives in the Ethiopian Court (1880-1935)

Monday 10 March, 5pm Room S1 ARB

Dr Aissatou Mbodj, Research Fellow at the CNRS, affiliated to the Centre d'études des mondes africains (CEMAf)

Mediating Voice: Writing Letters to Address the Public at a Local Radio Station in Mopti, Mali