

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Faculty of History

African Research Seminar – Lent 2013

The ARF is an interdisciplinary forum for the discussion of work in progress. Graduate students of all disciplines are welcome as well as academics.

Meetings will usually take place in the Green Room at Gonville and Caius College, on alternate Wednesdays at 1pm.

23 January:

Ian Cooper, African Studies Centre, University of Oxford: On dominant party cohesion in Southern Africa (exact title tba) Note: this meeting will take place in the Senior Parlour at Caius, rather than the Green Room.

6 February:

Danelle van Zyl, St John's College, Cambridge: on the white working class experience of the transition from apartheid (exact title tba)

20 February:

Joint session with the Henry Martyn Centre. Martha Fredericks, University of Utrecht on Africans in Europe in the 18th century (exact title tba) Note: this meeting will take place at the Henry Martyn Centre.

27 February:

Dr Amos Mwaka, School of Medicine, Makerere University College of Health Sciences, Uganda: 'Preventing deaths from cervical cancer in Uganda: cultural perspectives' Note: this will take place at the seminar room at the Centre of African Studies, Alison Richard Building, Sidgwick Site.

6 March:

Jessica Johnson, Cambridge, Anthropology: 'These are the days of school': coming of age in rural Malawi in a time of human rights

West Road
Cambridge CB3 9EF
Tel: + 44 (0) 1223 335340
Fax: + 44 (0) 1223 335968
<http://www.hist.cam.ac.uk>