

Seminar Series Michaelmas 2014

Migration and African Diasporas

5pm Room S1, Alison Richard Building

Monday 20 October

Nicholas Grant (UEA)

Zonk! Magazine: Black Modernity and the Marketplace in South Africa

Monday 27 October

Maxim Bolt (Birmingham)

The Roots of Impermanence: Farm Life, Labour, and Migration on the Zimbabwean-South African Border

Monday 3 November

Jo Ann McGregor (Sussex)

Spaces of Exile and Solidarity: Conviviality, Contention and Transnational Activism for Zimbabwe 1965-1980

Monday 10 November

Neil Carrier (Oxford)

From 'Nairobi East' to 'Little Mogadishu': Migration and Diaspora in the History of Nairobi's Eastleigh Estate

Monday 17 November

Pamela Kea (Sussex)

Cultivating Intergenerational Ideals: The Exchange of Photographs between Migrant Parents in Britain and their Children in The Gambia

Monday 24 November

Helene Neveau-Kringelbach (Oxford)

The Paradox of Parallel Lives: Immigration Policy and Transnational Polygyny between Senegal and France

Monday 1 December

Rijk van Dijk (Leiden)

Diasporic Romance: Marriage, Consumerism and Ghanaian Experiences in Botswana