MPhil in African Studies

The MPhil in African Studies is a postgraduate course with a substantial research component, which runs for nine months covering the three terms of the Cambridge academical Year. It is designed both for students who want to enhance their understanding of the social, cultural, political and economic history and present condition of Africa and for those who want to go on to further primary research. It provides intensive research and language training for those who wish to go on to prepare a doctoral dissertation. For the course prospectus and an application form contact the Centre of African Studies Cambridge or visit www.african.cam.ac.uk.
