

Centre of African Studies Seminars Michaelmas Term 2017

Rethinking African Studies

Histories and Futures of Knowledge Production on Africa

Mondays at 5pm in Room S1

Alison Richard Building, 7 West Road, Cambridge

16 October | Prof Wale Adebani, University of Oxford

Africa as a 'Dissimilar' System?

Knowledge Production on Africa in the UK

23 October | Dr Cécile Feza Bushidi, University of Cambridge

Epistemology and the Dance Archive in Colonial Central Kenya

30 October | Prof Clive Glaser, University of the Witwatersrand

Youth and Generational Conflict in South African Historiography

6 November | Prof Saul Dubow, University of Cambridge

Henri Breuil and the Imagination of Prehistory in Southern Africa

13 November | Dr Zoe Marks, University of Edinburgh

Can We Decolonise the Academy from Within?

20 November | Dr Simidele Dosekun, University of Sussex

Fashion as Transnational Feminist Methodology for African Studies

27 November | Dr Godwin Murunga, Executive Director, CODESRIA

CODESRIA and Knowledge Production in Africa

All welcome, refreshments are served after the seminar