

Research Seminar Series, Lent 2008

- Dr Guillaume Lachenal
(Le Centre national de la recherche scientifique, Paris)
28 January "Viruses as Resources. Transnational research on AIDS and the neo-liberal moment in Cameroon"
- Dr Hayley MacGregor
(International Development Studies)
4 February "NGOs, Activism and Human rights: an analysis of HIV, mental illness and stigma in South Africa"
- Professor Didier Fassin
(Ecoles Normales, Paris)
11 February "Paranoid Style and Memoro-Politics. Making sense of the South African controversy on AIDS"
- Professor Susan Whyte and Dr Lotte Meinert
(University of Copenhagen and University of Aarhus)
18 February "Living with ART: The first generation in Uganda"
- Dr Kris Petersen
(University of California)
25 February "Crafting Neoliberal Logics: the political economy of AIDS policies in Nigeria"
- Professor Catherine Campbell
(LSE)
3 March "Facilitating HIV/AIDS 'Empowerment' Programmes within Traditional Authority Structures: Experiences from southern Africa"
- Professor Suzette Heald
(Brunel University)
10 March "Suspicion of the State: Human Rights, Medicine and the AIDS crisis in Botswana and Kenya"

all seminars are at 5.00pm on a Monday

The Mond Building Seminar Room,
Free School Lane, Cambridge, CB2 3RF