

Seminar Series Lent 2011

Monday 24 January at 5pm

Maja Bovcon – on the Côte d'Ivoire elections;

“The 2010 Presidential Elections in Côte d'Ivoire: was it worth the wait?”

Monday 31 January at 5pm

Professor John Iliffe, University of Cambridge

“Obasanjo and the ‘Third Term’ Agenda in Nigeria”

Monday 7 February at 5pm

Andrew Brooks, Royal Holloway, University of London

“Threads Fall Apart: The International Used-clothing Trade and the Risky Livelihoods of Mozambican Market Traders”

Monday 14 February at 5pm

Professor David Anderson, African Studies Centre, Oxford University

“Global Gains, Local Losses: The Gibe Damns and Development in Ethiopia”

Monday 21 February at 5pm

Professor Terence Ranger, St Antony's College,

“History as Literature: capturing urban culture in Bulawayo Burning”

Monday 28 February at 5pm

Professor Christopher Cramer, SOAS, University of London

“Fair enough? What we don't know and how we might find out about the way fair trade works”

Monday 7 March at 5pm

Dr Kate Meagher, LSE, University of London

“Varieties of Non-State Governance: Comparative Approaches to African Informal Economies”