

Cambridge/Africa Collaborative Research Programme
Seminar Series Michaelmas 2011

Citizenship, Belonging and Political Community in Africa

The Collaborative Research Programme is supported by the Leverhulme Trust and Isaac Newton Trust

Monday 10 October at 5pm

Sarah Jenkins, University of Aberystwyth

“Comes with the Territory”: Imaginations of Space and Community in Urban Kenya

Monday 17 October at 5pm

Miles Larmer, University of Sheffield

Local Identities and Transnational Conflict: the Katangese Gendarmes and Central-Southern Africa's Forty-years war, 1960-1999

Monday 24 October at 5 pm

Patience Kabamba, The Kellogg Institute for International Studies, University of Notre Dame

Democratic Republic of the Congo the African Metastases of Post-Colonial Cancer: Rethinking the African State (re-)formation from a war-torn Perspective

Monday 31 October at 5 pm

Joel Cabrita, SOAS London

Bureaucracy and Heavenly Citizenship in the 20th Century South African Nazareth Church

Monday 7 November at 5pm

Baz Lecocq, University of Ghent

The Awad El Djouh Affair: Slave Trade, Media and Decolonisation in the Mid 20th Century

Monday 14 November at 5pm

Henri-Michel Yéré, ZMO Berlin

The Making of a Nationality: Côte d'Ivoire, 1958-1972

Monday 21 November at 5pm

Claire Mercer, The London School of Economics and Political Science

Rehabilitating Nationalisms: Conviviality and National Consciousness in Postcolonial Tanzania

Monday 28 November at 5pm

Florence Brisset-Foucault, University of Cambridge

How to a 'true' Muganda; Loyalty and Belonging in Buganda's Contemporary Music

